FOUNDATION

How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
"Fear not I am with thee, O be not dismayed,
"When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
"The soul that on Je - sus has leaned for re - pose,
Is laid for your faith in God's ex - cel - lent Word!
For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
My grace, all - suf - fi - cient, shall be thy sup - ply;

What more can be said than to you God hath said,

*LITANY

Linda Shipley

One: As we gather for worship we carry a burden of sadness for our world.

All: We grieve the losses brought on by blizzards, hurricanes, famine, a pandemic, and more.

One: At worship we carry the sadness of our human condition.

All: We grieve the division, blame, violence, and selfishness that pervades our world.

One: At worship we place the sadness, the anxiety, the uncertainty into God's hands.

All: At worship our hearts are turned from despair to hope and from fear to love.

One: Let us pray...

*UNISON PRAYER OF INVOCATION

God of all life, you rejoice with us when we celebrate, weep with us when we grieve, reassure us when we are anxious, and love us without reservation. Give us courage to face the sadness and grief and to plant them as seeds that can grow into new life. Nurture us so that we bear the fruit of your kingdom. Amen

ANTIPHONAL READING FROM THE PSALTER

"I Was Glad When They Said Unto Me"

The Community Quintet

C. Hubert Parry

*I was glad, glad when they said unto me,
"We will go into the house of the LORD!"*

Cantor

I was glad when they said unto me, "Let us go to the house of the LORD!"

"May they prosper who love you.

Peace be within your walls, and security within your towers."

Cantor

For the sake of my relatives and friends I will say, "Peace be within you."

For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek your good.

Cantor

One: Challenges and even tragedies in life prompt us to search for God's presence.

All: We watch and listen for God's presence in our text and in our lives.

Luke 13:1-9

At that very time there were some present who told [Jesus] about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. [Jesus asked the disciples], 'Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them—do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did.'

Then he told this parable: 'A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, "See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?" He replied, "Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig round it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down." '

RESPONSE

One: Jesus calls us to follow him to Jerusalem and the cross.

All: We strive to follow Jesus wherever he leads.

"Early Winter 'Tree"

The Community Quintet

Russell Nadel

*One by one, like leaves from a tree
All my faiths have forsaken me;
But the stars above my head
Burn in white and delicate red,
And beneath my feet the earth
Brings the sturdy grass to birth.*

*I who was content to be
But a silken-singing tree,
But a rustle of delight
In the wistful heart of night—
I have lost the leaves that knew
Touch of rain and weight of dew.*

*Blinded by a leafy crown
I looked neither up nor down—
But the little leaves that die
Have left me room to see the sky;
Now for the first time I know

WORSHIP

BLACK HISTORY MONTH COMPOSER SPOTLIGHT FEBRUARY 28TH: Today in worship we feature Afro-French composer, violinist, and conductor Joseph de Bologne, Chevalier de Saint-Georges. Saint-George is known today as one of the major early contributors of African descent in the tradition of European classical music. He gained fame as a violinist, conductor and composer; some of Europe's top composers created violin works with him in mind as the soloist. He premiered some of Franz Joseph Haydn's greatest symphonies. The music of Saint-George himself, though long forgotten, has been successfully revived. In his own time, he was known for much more than music. Saint-George was a champion fencer and the object of overt racial controversy, having survived two assassination attempts. In his later years he abandoned the aristocracy to fight for revolutionary ideals and he was an early supporter of racial equality in France and England. Visit notablebiographies.com for more information.

NEXT SUNDAY, MARCH 7TH: The sermon titled, "Lost and Found" will be given by Rev. Dr. Anna V. Copeland by live-stream in C<sub>2</sub> at 8:30 a.m. and live-streamed and in-person at 10:15 a.m. in the Sanctuary. Please join us for worship.

LESSONS FROM THE TABLE TODAY, FEBRUARY 28TH:

Lessons from the Table is open to all elementary-aged children and will be held in the Sanctuary from 11:15 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. Parents are encouraged to attend with their child. Our first class is today, Sunday, February 28th with "Table of Transfiguration" taught by Rev. Elizabeth B. Johnson. Contact Lia Peters at lia.peters@ccovb.org for more information.

OUR ICHTHYS PRAYER WHEEL OF GRACE CHAPEL:

Our prayer wheel crafted by potters Glenda Taylor and Sharon Richards will be in our Narthex during the season of Lent. For many centuries and across many cultures, prayer wheels have been utilized in devotional practice. The Christian use of prayer wheels dates from around the 19th century and has grown across the years. We invite you to write your prayer on the slips of paper provided, place it in the prayer wheel, and turn it gently at the base to symbolize turning your prayers toward heaven. God receives us as we are and hears our prayers. Trust in the Lord in all your ways and God will care for you.
