ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

C² SERVICE (LIVESTREAM ONLY) 8:30 A.M.

SANCTUARY AND LIVESTREAM SERVICE 10:15 A.M.

WELCOME

Today we celebrate All Saints Day. The origin of this solemn remembrance of our departed members and friends in Christ dates to the 7th century when Pope Boniface IV consecrated the Pantheon in Rome to heroes of the faith across centuries.

Today, while we acknowledge the loss we feel at the deaths of our friends and loved ones, we also claim our communion with them which is unending, and the promise that by God's grace we will share eternity with them.

We proudly join in the fellowship of all Christ's followers, the saints.

CHORAL CALL TO WORSHIP

"The Morning Trumpet"
arr. Robert Wetzler

The Community Quintet

*O when shall I see Jesus and reign with him above, and shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning,
And from flowing fountains, drink everlasting love, and shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning?
O shout glory, glory! I shall mount above the skies when I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.*

*Through grace I fell determined to conquer, though I die, and shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning.
And then away to Jesus, on wings of love I'll fly, and shall hear the trumpet sound in that morning.
O shout glory, glory! I shall mount above the skies, when I hear the trumpet sound in the morning.*

CALL TO WORSHIP AND OPENING PRAYER

Rev. Elizabeth B. Johnson

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
O blest communion, fellowship divine!
who to the world their steadfast faith confessed, Your
We fee-bly struggle, they in glory shine; Yet name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
in your love our faithful lives entwined.
Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia!

*LITANY

Everett Schleiter

One: We are gathered today with all the saints of God:

All: Abraham and Sarah, Moses and David, Elijah and a nameless widow.

One: We are gathered today to remember the saints of God:

All: All those faithful people who have gone before us into God's eternal rest.

One: We are gathered today as the saints of God,

All: To carry on the spirit and work of God in our world today.

One: Let us pray...

*UNISON PRAYER

Eternal God, today we remember your saints. Some are well-known to us, while others are known only to you; some were rich while others barely had enough; some have comforted and encouraged us, while others have inspired and challenged our way of life. We are grateful to be together with all the saints as part of a faithful, beloved community. Forgive us when we forget that we are one of your saints and fail to live as your beloved people. Remind us that our names, too, will be listed among your great communion of saints. Amen

ATTENDING TO GOD'S WORD

READING FROM THE PSALTER

Antiphon: Psalm 146

JILL J. TRUAX

The Lord will reign for ever. Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!

Cantor

One: Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD, O my soul! I will praise the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God all my life long. Do not put your trust in princes, in mortals, in whom there is no help. When their breath departs, they return to the earth; on that very day their plans perish. Happy are those whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD their God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them; who keeps faith forever; who executes justice for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry.

The LORD sets the prisoners free; the LORD opens the eyes of the blind. The LORD lifts up those who are bowed down; the LORD loves the righteous. The LORD watches over the strangers; he upholds the orphan and the widow, but the way of the wicked he brings to ruin. The LORD will reign forever, your God, O Zion, for all generations. Praise the LORD!

Cantor

READING FROM THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES

Rev. David W. Johnson

One: Silence in us, O God, any voice but your own.

All: That we might hear your words of hope.

1 Kings 17:8-20, 22-24

Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah, saying, "Go now to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and live there; for I have commanded a widow there to feed you." So he set out and went to Zarephath. When he came to the gate of the town, a widow was there gathering sticks; he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, so that I may drink." As she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand." But she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a jug; I am now gathering a couple of sticks, so that I may go home and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die." Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterwards make something for yourself and your son. For thus says the LORD the God of Israel: The jar of meal will not be emptied and the jug of oil will not fail until the day that the LORD sends rain on the earth." She went and did as Elijah said, so that she as well as he and her household ate for many days. The jar of meal was not emptied, neither did the jug of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by Elijah.

After this the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill; his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. She then said to Elijah, "What have you against me, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to cause the death of my son!" But he said to her, "Give me your son." He took him from her bosom, carried him up into the upper chamber where he was lodging, and laid him on his own bed. He cried out to the LORD, "O LORD my God, have you brought calamity even upon the widow with whom I am staying, by killing her son?" Then he...cried out to the LORD, "O LORD my God, let this child's life come into him again." The LORD listened to the voice of Elijah; the life of the child came into him again, and he revived. Elijah took the child, brought him down from the upper chamber into the house, and gave him to his mother; then Elijah said, "See, your son is alive." So the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth."

RESPONSE

One: God provides for all the saints - whether well-known or unknown.

All: We trust God to care for us as well.

THE PROMISE OF SCRIPTURE

Rev. Joshua J. Longbottom

John 14:1-3

'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling-places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also.'

"Sing Me To Heaven"
Daniel E. Ganthrop

The Community Quintet

*In my heart's sequestered chambers lie truths stripped of poet's gloss.
Words alone are vain and vacant and my heart is mute.
In response to aching silence memory summons half-heard voices,
And my soul finds primal eloquence and wraps me in song.
If you would comfort me, sing me a lullaby.
If you would win my heart, sing me a love song.
If you would mourn me and bring me to God,
Sing me a requiem, sing me to heaven.
Touch in me all love and passion, pain and pleasure,
Touch in me grief and comfort; love and passion, pain and pleasure.
Sing me a lullaby, a love song, a requiem.
Love me, comfort me, bring me to God:
Sing me a love song, sing me to heaven.*

"How Glorious is the Kingdom"

The Community Quintet

Philip Stopford

O how glorious is the Kingdom wherein all the Saints rejoice with Christ.
Clothed in white robes they follow the Lamb wither-so-ever he goeth.

UNISON OFFERTORY PRAYER

Everett Schleter

God, today as we acknowledge all your saints throughout history, help us to see ourselves as your saints today. Let us live as your humble servants, knowing that you dwell among us and that we will dwell with you forever. May the offering we bring be like the widow's flour and oil, providing just enough for our needs. Amen

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

Clergy of the Church

CALL TO COMMUNION

One: God be with you

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts

All: We lift them up to God.

One: Let us thank God.

All: It is good to give God thanks and praise.

One: Let us pray. We give you thanks today, O God, for all the ways you nourish us through life, and especially for the feast of this table, where Christ's very spirit is present to uplift us, to heal us, to sustain us. We thank you for all of your followers who have gathered through the years to eat this meal: saints of every nation and every age. As they pass into your eternal keeping, we trust that we are in communion with them yet. Let this meal today be a feast of remembrance and our reminder that tears are not the final word - for out of death, your love rises undimmed and victorious. Amen

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

*No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here. Everyone is welcome to share in Holy Communion.
Our communion wine is non-alcoholic. Gluten-free wafers will be on each tray.

"Communion Prayer"

The Community Quintet

Michael Graham

*Eternal God, You are infinite in love and mighty to save.
You are peerless in wisdom and perfect in power.
After a long and moonless night, You have given us the rising of the Son,
And brought about the death of death.
If the cross is proof of Your love, the empty tomb is proof of your Power,
A power that conquers even death!
O praise the Lord! Praise the Lord, you people of God,
Praise the Lord from the rising of the sun to the place where it sets.
From this time forth, and forevermore,
Rocks and rivers, forests and fields, all mountains and men, all heaven and earth,
You angels and saints, you people of God, Praise the Lord!
Mighty to save! Perfect in Power! Praise the Lord!*

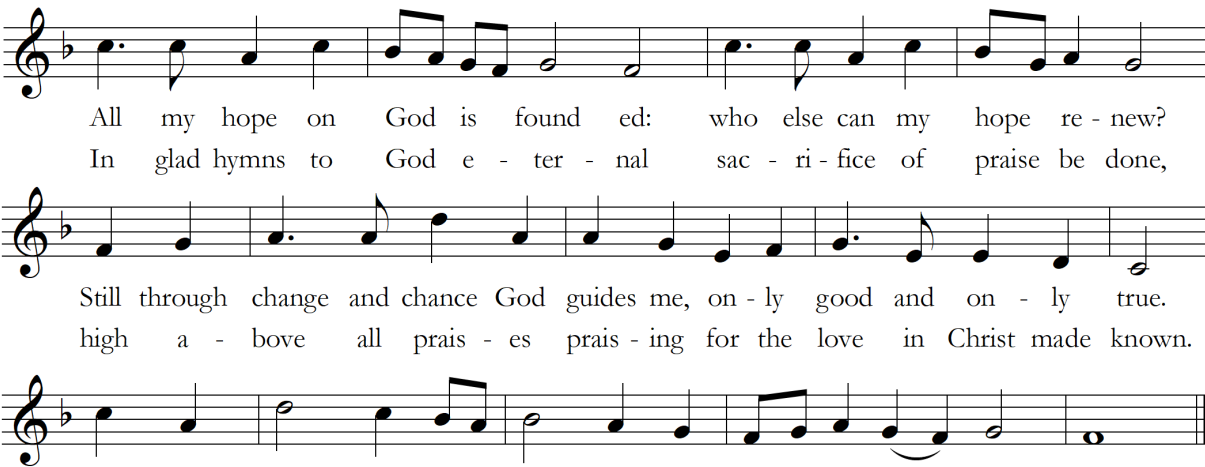

*Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
 Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day, our daily bread.
 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen*

ADULT FAITH MATTERS

COURAGEOUS CONVERSATIONS: How will we each make it through this election season? And how will the nation make it through? Americans are growing more and more fond of our disdain and contempt for people who disagree with us. As disciples of Jesus, how can we live his commandments to "love your neighbor" and "love your enemies"? Your church is here to help. Dr. Allen Hilton will be back to encourage us with ways to stay faithful through the election season. We will meet Dr. Hilton again on Wednesday, November 11th. Register for your zoom invitation at ccovb.org or call the Church Office at 772.562.3633.

BIBLE STUDIES: This year we are studying the Narrative Lectionary with our Adult Bible Studies. The Narrative Lectionary readings line up with the major church festivals (Christmas, Transfiguration Sunday, Ash Wednesday, Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter, and Pentecost). This gives us the broad story of our faith, using a chronological approach.

• MEN'S ZOOM BIBLE STUDY: Tuesdays at 8:00 a.m. with Rev. David W. Johnson.

* Information and Registration: Email Suzanne Rice at suzanne.rice@ccovb.org.

• WOMEN'S ZOOM BIBLE STUDY: Wednesdays @ 11:00 a.m. with Rev. Elizabeth B. Johnson.
