*LENTEN LITANY

John Langfitt

One: Lift up your heads like the mighty gates of the psalms of old.

All: We lift up our heads!

One: Lift up your hearts with courage and compassion!

All: We lift up our hearts!

One: Lift up your voices with the song the children sang!

All: We lift up our voices – Hosanna, O, Hosanna!

One: This is, indeed, the day that God has made.

*UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Hosanna, save us, you who stand on the threshold of this week and our lives. We fling our palms of praise before you. Hosanna, save us, in spite of the fact that we misunderstand you so often. We confess that we want you to meet our expectations rather than changing our lives to meet yours. We confess that we prefer the festivity of Palm Sunday to the quiet sadness and repentance of Holy Week. Forgive us all our sins and help us take up our own crosses to follow you. Amen

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Whenever we cry “Hosanna,” which means “God save us,” God enters our lives immediately with forgiveness and the courage to live! Amen

*LIGHTING OF ‘TWELVE DISCIPLES’ CANDLES

Each week during Lent we light two more candles in remembrance of the disciples who enthusiastically followed Jesus. On Maundy Thursday the same twelve candles will be extinguished to represent their desertion and betrayal. Today we especially remember the disciples Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot.

*LENTEN PETITION

“Jesus, Remember Me”

Je - sus, re - mem - ber me when you come in - to your King - dom.

Je - sus, re - mem - ber me when you come in - to your King - dom.

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics written below the notes. The first staff ends with a double bar line, and the second staff ends with a repeat sign (double bar line with two dots).

All: Amen.

READING FROM THE PSALMS

Rev. David W. Johnson

One: God speaks fresh words from our holy history.

All: We listen with our ears, minds and spirits.

Psalm 118:1-2, 18-29

O give thanks to the LORD, for God is good; God's steadfast love endures forever! Let Israel say, 'God's steadfast love endures forever.'

The LORD has punished me severely, but he did not give me over to death. Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the LORD. This is the gate of the LORD; the righteous shall enter through it. I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation. The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. This is the LORD's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes. This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Save us, we beseech you, O LORD! O LORD, we beseech you, give us success! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD. We bless you from the house of the LORD. The LORD is God, and God has given us light. Bind the festal procession with branches, up to the horns of the altar. You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God, I will extol you. O give thanks to the LORD, for God is good, for God's steadfast love endures forever.

Response

One: We give thanks for all who have shaped our scripture.

All: May our lives witness to the heritage of faith.

CALL TO THE GOSPEL

Elaine A. Matthes

One: We read from a story we call the Good News.

All: We open our hearts to its message of love.Matthew 21:1-11*

When they had come near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me. If anyone says anything to you, just say this, "The Lord needs them." And he will send them immediately.' This took place to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet, saying, 'Tell the daughter of Zion, Look, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'

The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them; they brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them. A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. The crowds that went ahead of him and that followed were shouting, 'Hosanna to the Son of David, [save us, save us]! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!'

When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil, asking, 'Who is this?' The crowds were saying, 'This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee.'

RESPONSE

One: May these words gather us home on our Lenten journey.

All: May all our wandering find the path of hope.

PRAYER OF BLESSING

Rev. David W. Johnson

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

CALL TO OFFERING

OFFERTORY PRAYER

John Langfitt

This morning we wave our palms in the imagination of our hearts. We send our offerings, and we present our lives – dedicating all that we are and all that we have to God’s good purposes of care and kindness for a world shadowed by coronavirus and other concerns.

We share our gifts in these times when we worship together though apart, by mailing our offerings and pledges to the church, or by giving on-line through our website at CCOVB.org, or through Text to Give, until that day when we worship together face to face once again. May God to bless today our Palm Sunday Celebration as we walk through this Holy Week to Easter dawn.

*Last night I lay asleeping
There came a dream so fair
I stood in old Jerusalem
Beside the temple there
I heard the children singing
And ever as they sang
Me thought the voice of Angels
From Heaven in answer rang
"Jerusalem, Jerusalem!
Lift up your gates and sing,
Hosanna in the highest.
Hosanna to your King!"*

*And then me thought my dream was chang'd
The streets no longer rang
Hushed were the glad Hosannas
The little children sang
The sun grew dark with mystery
The morn was cold and chill
As the shadow of a cross arose
Upon a lonely hill*

*"Jerusalem, Jerusalem!
Hark! How the Angels sing,
Hosanna in the highest,
Hosanna to your King!"*
*And once again the scene was changed
New earth there seemed to be
I saw the Holy City
Beside the tideless sea
The light of God was on its streets
The gates were open wide
And all who would might enter
And no one was denied
No need of moon or stars by night
Or sun to shine by day
It was the new Jerusalem
That would not pass away
"Jerusalem! Jerusalem
Sing for the night is o'er
Hosanna in the highest
Hosanna for evermore!"*

Rev. Dr. Anna V. Copeland and Rev. David W. Johnson

CALL TO PRAYER

One: God be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to God.

One: Let us thank God.

All: It is good to give God thanks and praise.

One: God, there is one bread, one body, one Lord of all and one cup of blessing which we bless. We, though many, throughout the earth are one body in you. May the Spirit rest upon our table as on the table long ago so that this loaf may be broken love and this cup a well of blessing. Amen

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

One: Let us pray in thanksgiving for this meal of grace, rejoicing that, by the very method of our worship, we have embodied the truth that Christ's love is not limited by buildings made with human hands, nor contained in human ceremonies, but blows as free as the Spirit in all places.

All: Spirit of Christ, you have blessed our tables and our lives. May the eating of this Bread give us courage to speak faith and act love, not only in church sanctuaries, but in your precious world, and may the drinking of this Cup renew our hope even in the midst of pandemic. Wrap your hopeful presence around all whose bodies, spirits and hearts need healing, and let us become your compassion and safe refuge...We pray in the name of Jesus whose prayer we now join in singing.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER (SUNG)

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors,
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

As you drive up to the Church entrance, a minister will greet you with a sign of peace, and place a prayer and a palm cross under your windshield wiper, which you can retrieve and enjoy when you return home.

Our Palm Sunday and Easter worship services, as well as Maundy Thursday and Good Friday services, according to the schedule below, will be available through our website, at www.covb.org.
