Music and Fine Arts Summer Months

Summer is here and the music staff will take turns going on vacation!

Andrew will be out of the office from Monday, July 6th until Monday, July 13th. He will be visiting his parents in Sarasota, FL and enjoying time on the water—jet skiing, boogie boarding, and alligator wrestling.

Rachel is planning a road trip to West Virginia to steal fabric from her parents and family members. She will be out of the office from Monday, July 13th to Monday, July 20th.

Jill will be out of the office from Monday, July 20th until Monday, July 27th. She will traipse across eight states to see her parents and search for a vaccine for the coronavirus.

We hope to get some much needed summer relaxation and to come back refreshed, renewed and ready for our August programming!

August Offerings

Beginning August 10th, the Music Ministry will host a six-week “Back to School” program offered to our choir and congregation. We will present classes via Zoom in Music Theory, Sight-singing, and Music History.

If you have ever wanted to know “what in the world” Andrew is talking about during rehearsals, these courses are for you!

If you want to strengthen your skills in sight-reading new hymns and choir anthems, these classes will give you the tools you need!

If you have found yourself wondering why the music from each time period sounds a certain way, these classes will give you some insight!

Please keep an eye out for registration information.

non-cognitive skills

or dance.”*

Music Library

Jill and our librarians have been working diligently on updating our Choral Music Library. They even found some old photos of the choir! (See final page.)

If you have any orphan choir music at home we wouldn't mind having it mailed to us, or finding it delivered to the Main Office of the Church. We will welcome the music home with open arms, no questions asked!

Inventory is underway for our New CD Lending Library! Stay tuned for updates!
